500 BARRELS A DAY

The Enormous Yield of a New Oil Gusher at Callery Junction.

ITS OWNERS SELL OUT FOR $35,000.

A Prominent Young Lady Drowns Herself in the Creek at Franklin.

STATE LABORERS LEAVE JOHNSTOWN

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 BUTLER, September 30 .- There is wild excitement among oil men and the farmers over the gusher at Callery Junction. The well as located on the Dr. Irvine farm, about one mile below Callery, and fully three miles in advance of producing wells. It began flowing at the rate of 300 barrels Saturday. There were several purchasers soon after the strike, and Reed & Davis finally sold the well and 125 neres of leases to Forst, Russell & Co. for $35,000. A cash payment of $5,000 was made, and the balance was to be paid to-day. The sale has not been closed, and there seems to be a flotsam and jetsam of interests, with which a number of lawyers are drifting

The well, meantime, has steadily increased and is now flowing 500 barrels a day. This is the history of the strike which illustrated the rapid changes in oil region values. Some menths ago Gibson & McBride leased 25 acres menths ago Gibson & McBride leased 25 acres of wildcat land on the Irvine farm. They sold an eighth interest to W. E. Reed, the lucky of man of Butler, for a derrick or rig valued at $400. Another quarter was sold to a Mrs. Davis, of Pittsburg, for a boiler and machinery. A few weeks ago a judgment was obtained against Gibson & McBride for a small board bill, an execution was issued, and the interest of Gibson & McBride was soid at constable's sale and bought by Lawyer Davis, of Pittsburg. Then Davis sold five-sixteenths to W. E. Reed, making the latter's entire interest seven-sixteenths. To a driller named McIntyre Mr. Reed sold one-sixteenth for $200. Finally Reed and Davis made a sale of the entire working interest to Forst, Russell & Co.

This morning Gibson appeared on the scene and brought action of electment in Common Pleas Court, Butler county, for five-sixteenths interest in the gusher and the 25 acres lease on which it is located. He claims that the constable's sale was irregular and did not divest him of his title. He hassemployed Colonel Thompson and L. sicQuiston, while Reed & McIntyre have employed Judge McCandless, and Forst, Russell & Co., have secured Greer & Raiston. A compresse was almost effected this afternoon, but there proved to be so many conflicting interests that the lawyers are preparing for court. The value of the property is now rated at from $50,600 to $55,600.

Callery Junction farmers are so inflated that they causearcely determine what bouns to ask. It is believed that when the toris are removed they can scarcely determine what bonus to ask. It is believed that when the tools are removed from the well she will be the largest yet dis-

STATE WORKERS LEAVE.

A Thousand of the State's Employes Preparing to Quit Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, September 30.—To-night the force of workmen for the State inid down their tools for good. In the morning they will be paid off and many of them, not residents of the place, will leave town. There have been about 1,000 men employed during the past week or two. A committee of three prominent citizens went to Harrisburg last night, hoping to present the conditions of things here in such a light to Governor Beaver that he would consent to a continuance of the work, but nothing favorable has been received from them. The favorable has been received from them. The school children were out to-day in force, but where there were 35 rooms in operation last year there are only 24 now. Some of them are crowled a little, but the average to a room is not much greater than last year. Of the 36 teachers, eight of them are gone—this in Johnstown borough alone. In one portion of Milivale borough and in Woodvale borough the loss is much greater. Harry Bischoff, who has been here every day since the flood looking for the body of his sister, who was lost from the day express, leaves for his home in St. Louis to-night, the body having been recovered a few days ago.

leaves for his home in St. Louis to-night, the body having been recovered a few days ago.

Although a great part of the State forces worked in the river to-day, but little headway was made, and the work is left undone, yet a member of the Board of Health stated positively that the river is in a bad sanitary condition. Secretary Kremer left to-night for Pittsburg, where he will help to arbitrate Mc-Knight's claim against the State.
